Time to Move On

I've had my vacation and then some.

So back to work. Now that the store is up and running, thanks to Margaret, I'm getting the rest of the support work done. The affiliate program is making money for folks, I've added an affiliate support board. I have to update the links on the site to reflect the presence of the store.

And today, along with working more on crits and WB workshops, I need to work out my writing plan for the next six months. (Last year was a good example of why I'm not going to be doing it for a full year.)

Gradually, everything is coming together.

A question:

I want to do the following Clinics – Plotting, Revise and Submit, Storyshowing, and Worldbuilding. Which would you most like to see next?
