

Twitter Updates for 2008-10-15

By Holly Lisle

- Working on getting Zette Gifford's Silky II ready for the shop. #
- Up way late tonight—for me, anyway. I'm generally up at six and asleep by ten. Not tonight, though. #
- Today, I'm writing the lesson on Hiring Spies for Your Writing. ☐ I've been waiting for this one—it's one of my favorite things. #
- 4000+ words done on the lesson today. "Spies" is coming along VERY nicely. ☐ And it's such fun to write. #
- @alihale Did not intend that. Fixed it. And stopped the daily Tweet digest on my blog, too, now that the contest is over. Thanks. #
- @celticlibrarian You've very welcom. I hope you find it fun and encouraging. #
- @hearwritenow ☐ Thank you. And doing the gift thing made it a really fun birthday. Bit hectic, but fun. #
- @tonwithe You're welcome. ☐ #
- @sldavisca I'm amazed by how cool twitter is. #
- @Lenneth It's more of a physiological imperative for me than a choice. Most nights I fall asleep at ten whether I want to or not. #
- @grayfeather Had a wonderful birthday, and I hope you enjoy using Scenes. ☐ #
- @ca_bookwurm Serious good luck with NaNo. Hope Scenes helps. #
- @crinklequirk You're very welcome. #
- @PolarBear60 You're welcome. And isn't Twitter cool? #
- @shaunduke You're welcome. I hope you get some good writing out of it. #
