

US Military Personnel Support Board

By Holly Lisle

I've put together a small non-community-related private board for people who have family or friends stationed overseas/ in harm's way right now, as well as for those who don't but who would like to offer support. We'll be sending letters and books and so on. This is not a war discussion/debate board. If you would like to be included – either to put up the names and addresses of people who could use a few books or a letter, or to send things – you can send a message to me here.

(This link will take you to a login link if you aren't a community member – while this project isn't affiliated with the community, the only way I can keep the board private and only for those who want to use it is to require membership. My apologies for the inconvenience.)
