I made up a LOT of lost time yesterday—worked from 8AM to 11PM, and got up to page 235 in the manuscript.

Today I need to get to 324.

I am, FINALLY, through the mid-part where I had too many characters, too much exposition and where I was, page for page, crossing the page out and handwriting a new one about one out of three pages.

I actually now have two pages that required no changes. Am hoping for more of those as I progress.

Write with joy, get some cool words.
