

Well, It Was A Nice Review, Anyway

By Holly Lisle

Last Girl Dancing was a July Top Pick in romantic suspense in Romantic Times. The reviewer said, “Add Lisle’s name to the list of exceptional romantic suspense authors. Gritty drama, eerie paranormal twists and heart-pounding suspense make Last Girl Dancing well worth the price.”

Of course, I’ve probably slaughtered my chance of ever working in romance of any sort again with my last censorship post.

Many times in my life, I’ve wished I was a ‘don’t rock the boat’ sort of person – and this is one of them. But I’m not. So. Glad the review on LGD was good, anyway.
