

Well, it's Monday, after all... 888 words, and... damn Monday

By Holly Lisle

I bumped up my projected word-count to 95,000 words so that I could still have the progress bar show what I've done. I got 888 words in spite of deleting a bunch. While writing today was liking rollerskating uphill against a headwind, but I still got words.

Here's hoping tomorrow will be less of a pain.
