

Went to see Lord of the Rings today

What this did to my writing schedule for the day is pitiful. What it did for my desire to write – and to write well – however, is another matter. It was lyrical, wonderful, beautiful, and rich. It was everything I could have hoped it would be and was absolutely certain (having seen Tolkein slaughtered in previous forays) that it would not.

Go. Go. So you miss a day's work. What's work, anyway, if you leave with wonder in your soul?
