Started at 48,382 words today, finished at 51,536 words – so got the three thousand for the day plus nice change. And I got to write the scene I've been dying to write since I started this book. It was as fun, as fierce, and as uplifting as I had hoped it would be. I think it was a little thin in places, but I'll correct any thin spots in the rewrite.

Now I'm off to see what sort of proposal I can start for Anna Genoese at Tor. I have ideas – many ideas. Just not sure how to tie them into a nice, coherent package.
