Fun, fun writing day today. I ran for about two hours, and got 2176 words, a really cool twist I didn't expect, a second twist that I did, and put Cady, Tarko, and Storm Rat in the eye of not one but TWO coming storms.

Herog is off doing other stuff in this novel, so is missing the fun – but he's dealing with fun of his own.

And I just love the way this is clicking.

On to the next thing for today, which is putting together and posting my Patreon Rewards for my patrons, and then getting the other half dozen things in my bullet journal completed.

But 'fiction first' and the ten minute timer make my mornings crazy fun.
