Got an excellent pick for you this morning – Open-Minded ... or Mindless?, from Boogie Jack's. Very good essay from a very good site.

I've been much absent the last few days, and will probably still be absent for the next few – got one kid back from the train station and two weeks in North Carolina, the second safely ensconced in her new place with her first visit back here yesterday, and today and possibly for the next few days have a couple of things going on that prevent me from being on the phone, (and I'm currently using dial-up to access the Internet, which means my only solution is to stay offline).

More on what's up later if it comes to anything. If not, I'll be back without comment soon.
