

Woke up at four again

I don't know why. Four AM on the nose, and I was wide awake and ready to write. So I came out, sat down, and I have about a thousand words already. And I have both my end of chapter cliffhanger, which I just love, and a surprise scene-break cliffhanger, firmly in mind.

I have funny. I have spooky. I have weird. And I'm having a wonderful time – though why I'm waking up at four in the morning to have it pretty much defies all logic. I'm a morning person, yes. But this is still night.
