

Yesterday with Wings

By Holly Lisle

I had an amazing run on "C" yesterday, and one of the first really good writing days I've had in some time. I was doing editing, so I only show a thousand or so words of progress, but I did nearly forty pages of rewriting. Got the murder that I wanted, got the foreshadowing that I needed, and today I'm going back in and doing a brand new scene that is a combination of body-discovering and the start of a forbidden romance. (No, not necrophiliac, and thanks SO much for thinking that. ... Oh. That was me. Never mind.)

Hoping to nail the scene, maybe run to the next, and rack up a great word count.
