

You always kidnap the one you love...

By Holly Lisle

636 words tonight—they flew, and in the scene I called Razor Wire, Ki realizes that the thorn in his side is going to bother him worse if she's dead than if she isn't, and realizes he's going to have to take some unsavory steps to keep her breathing.

Aleksa, meanwhile, gets her first sleep in 36 hours, and discovers on waking that the wound has not improved in her absence...and that she's in serious trouble.

I'll find out more of what sort of trouble tomorrow night. For now, I got a lot, I love what I got, and the razor wire worked well.
